

Oldbrook First School 'Living and Learning Together'

Part Time Nursery Teacher – Fixed Term until 31st August 2022 Required for January 2022 (MPS/UPS) 5 mornings plus Wednesday afternoon for PPA

Oldbrook First School is a 'good school' (Ofsted February 2018). We value the importance of early years education, providing children with the best possible opportunities to become confident, enthusiastic and successful learners. Our Nursery morning session runs from 8.30 a.m. until 11.30 a.m.

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, creative and nurturing Nursery Teacher from January 2022. You will be required to teach in Nursery, demonstrating up-to-date knowledge of pedagogy and early years practice.

If you feel that you can offer Oldbrook the following then we would love to hear from you!

Have a strong understanding and knowledge of relevant and up-to-date Early Years practice and child development.

Ability to create a high quality, stimulating, interactive and creative learning environment.

Can provide excellent learning opportunities for children.

Strong knowledge of the EYFS curriculum.

Can challenge, inspire and support children in their learning.

Have high expectations of pupil behaviour and learning.

Be an outstanding teacher with proven EYFS experience.

A team player with excellent interpersonal skills and a sense of humour!

If you would like to be considered for this post then please submit a letter with your application indicating:

- Why you wish to teach at Oldbrook First School
- Your proven experience of delivering quality teaching and learning opportunities within Early Years in a creative and purposeful way.

We will offer you a supportive learning environment which values everybody; happy well motivated children who are eager to learn; a supportive leadership team, as well as opportunities for further professional development.

Please come and visit our school in action. Contact Miss Vale on 01908 604689 for further details.

Oldbrook First School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. All appointments will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure. We are an equal opportunities employer.

Closing date: Wednesday 20th October 4pm.

Job Description for the Role of Class Teacher at Oldbrook First School

Class teachers are bound by the responsibilities outlined in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document.

In accordance with the school's policies and under the direction of the Headteacher, the responsibilities of the class teacher are:

1. To promote the intellectual, physical, social and moral development of each pupil, to have overall pastoral care for the pupils in the class and provide guidance and counselling to pupils on educational and relevant social matters.
2. To encourage children to strive for high standards in their work and behaviour.
3. To foster and maintain strong relationships within the classroom and in the school in general, that will encourage positive social awareness, responsibility and interaction.
4. To plan, prepare, and review as necessary programmes of work for the children in the class, working within the unit structure to ensure that children in the unit have equal access to the curriculum, and to keep written planning documentation up to date.
5. To teach the children following agreed teaching plans, and mark and respond to each child's work as appropriate.
6. To maintain the classroom as a well ordered and attractive learning environment, with displays that enhance the quality of children's education, and to make efficient use of resources.
7. To ensure the discipline and safety of children in the assigned class, and to encourage good discipline and safety at all times during the working day, and when engaged in authorised school activities elsewhere.
8. To assess and record each child's attainment and progress in their learning and in their social development, and prepare reports on individual children as necessary.
9. To prepare, implement and review Individual Education Plans for children with identified special educational needs, and to liaise with the SENCO and external agencies as appropriate.
10. To participate in school development work, in agreed appraisal procedures, in-service training and professional development.
11. To consult and liaise with parents and other members of staff, formally or informally, as appropriate.
12. To undertake a share of supervision duties of children during the school day.
13. To communicate, liaise and co-operate with external agencies and individuals.
14. To participate in meetings at school which relate to the curriculum or the organisation or administration of the school
15. To take whole school responsibility for the co-ordination of subject areas of teaching and learning.

16. To supervise, and so far as is practicable, teach any pupils whose teacher is not available to them, should it not be possible to get a supply teacher.
17. To participate in administrative and organisational tasks related to the responsibilities described, including registering attendance of pupils.
18. To manage or supervise staff and other adults providing support in the classroom.
19. To carry out other particular duties reasonably assigned by the Headteacher or Leadership Team.
20. To contribute to the overall life and work of the school.
21. To implement all school policies, including policies on diversity and equality and health and safety and child protection
